

My family and I are deeply disturbed at the possible loss of diversity should the FCC deregulate. We think such a step would be destructive and detrimental to our deomocratic system, which relies on free press for expressing opinions. Please give us time for public debate and input.